Aix-en-Provence, January 26, 2017.

Global EcoPower (GEP) today announced it ranked n°3 (out of 27) in the Energy and Green Tech sector of the Technology Fast 50 France. This Deloitte prize list promotes and encourages, year after year, the development of companies combining innovation and growth in high technologies.

GEP also ranked n°321 on the Deloitte Technology Fast 500™ EMEA list, a ranking of the 500 fastest-growing technology, media, telecommunications, life sciences and energy tech companies in Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA).

The excellent growth performance of the company enabled Global EcoPower to enter these rankings: GEP achieved a turnover of 25.91 M€ in 2015 (+63% year-over-year), representing an average sales' growth rate of +361% over the last four years.

Jean-Marie Santander, CEO of Global EcoPower, declares:

"These new prizes awarded by Deloitte confirm GEP's dynamic of growth and the success of the strategy developed and implemented by the founders in order to make the Group an independent actor with a unique model dedicated to the construction of wind and solar PV power plants. Backed by its international development, the Group expects its turnover 2017 to exceed € 120 million."

Paul Sallomi, vice chairman of Deloitte LLP and global technology, media and telecommunications industry leader, declares:

"Innovation is more than technological advancement; it's also a state of mind. The winners of the Deloitte Technology Fast 500 program in EMEA recognize that this new type of thinking is essential for business success. We look forward to your continued leadership in introducing new tools that can enhance the personal lives of consumers, and drive growth for companies worldwide."

About the Deloitte 2016 Technology Fast 500 EMEA program

The Deloitte Technology Fast 500™ EMEA program is an objective industry ranking focused on the technology ecosystem. It recognizes technology companies that have achieved the fastest rates of revenue growth in Europe, the Middle East, and Africa (EMEA) during the past four years. The program is supported by the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 initiatives, which rank high-growth technology companies by location or specifically defined geographic area, and are run by the Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited's Technology, Media & Telecommunications (TMT) global industry group. More information on the program and prior year winners is available at www.deloitte.com/fast500emea.

Now in its sixteenth year, the Deloitte Technology Fast 500 EMEA program in 2016 included over 20 countries, including Belgium, France, Finland, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Turkey and the UK. This year's winners were selected based on percentage fiscal-year revenue growth from 2012 to 2015.

In 2016, Deloitte Technology Fast 500 EMEA companies achieved revenue growth ranging from 212 percent to 28,126 percent from 2012 to 2015, with median growth of 967 percent.
